Arun Sharma clarified that these are his initial estimates, and there may be some changes after release of CAT answer key.

Speaking to MBAUniverse.com, Arun Sharma said: “My estimates are based on assumptions, and my assessment of difficulty levels in the papers as compared to CAT 2022 and 2023. There might be a slight upward movement on these numbers - maybe by 3-5 marks at each of these percentile levels. A closer look might give me a chance to improve my assumptions but for now I will stick with these numbers.”
