Documents to Carry (Mandatory)

The official ATMA Bulletin is unambiguous: candidates without the prescribed documents will not be allowed to appear for the test.

1. Printed ATMA Admit Card
2. Printed ATMA Application Form with passport-size photograph affixed
3. Valid government photo ID — any one of: Aadhaar Card, PAN Card, Passport, Driving Licence or Voter ID
4. Two recent passport-size colour photographs (identical to the one uploaded during registration)

Dos on ATMA Exam Day

- Reach the test centre by 12:30 PM to account for traffic, parking and entry-gate queues.
- Carry all documents in a transparent folder for quick verification.
- Wear comfortable, layered clothing — exam-hall AC temperatures vary.
- Use the restroom before the exam begins.
- Read on-screen instructions carefully before clicking "Start Exam".
- Manage time at 55 seconds per question on average; review flagged questions in the last 3-4 minutes of each section.

Don'ts on ATMA Exam Day

- Do not arrive after 1:00 PM — entry is restricted once verification closes.
- Do not carry electronic devices — mobile phones, smartwatches, Bluetooth earphones, fitness bands, or calculators are strictly prohibited in the exam hall.
- Do not carry books, notes, study material, bags, wallets or food (a transparent water bottle is permitted at most centres).
- Do not talk to or look at other candidates' screens — this is grounds for immediate disqualification.
- Do not attempt to change your allotted computer; raise your hand and ask the invigilator if there is a technical issue.
