No MAH MBA CET Exam Centres Outside Maharashtra

There are no MAH MBA CET exam centres outside Maharashtra. Outside Maharashtra State (OMS) candidates, who compete for the 15% All India seats, must travel to the MAH MBA CET test centres in the state's 36 test cities, at their own risk and expense. If you live outside the state:

- Choose a test city you can reach a day before the exam.
- Book travel and stay once the MAH MBA CET exam city intimation slip names your city.
- Reach the venue well before the reporting time, since late candidates are not allowed in.
- If you want only All India seats, note that you can also apply to CAP with a CAT, CMAT, XAT, ATMA, MAT or GMAT score.

How to Choose Your MAH MBA CET Test City

You choose MAH MBA CET test cities while filling the application form, in the preferred examination districts. MBAUniverse.com has reported that candidates can choose up to three cities. Keep these points in mind:

- Put the city closest to your home or college first.
- Morning reporting is at 7:30 AM, so prefer a city you can reach early or stay in overnight.
- Your venue may be anywhere in the district; the admit card shows the district and taluka.
- Your choice of MAH MBA CET centres cannot be changed later, so decide before you submit the form.

MAH MBA CET Centre Allotment and Change Rules

The CET Cell allots the MAH CET exam centres and venues, and may allot a different or adjacent centre. The choice of centre, once made, is final: no request to change the centre, venue, date or session is entertained, and candidates attend at their own risk and expense.

The CET Cell's 2026 notice asked every candidate to verify the exam centre details, including the district and taluka, and to download the final admit card at least four days before the exam.

MAH MBA CET Exam City Details: Intimation Slip and Admit Card

MAH MBA CET exam city details come in two stages. First, the MAH MBA CET exam city intimation slip, a provisional hall ticket, names only your exam city; in 2026, it was being released from March 17. Then the final admit card gives the centre details a few days before the exam (April 2 and May 2 in 2026). Both are downloaded from the candidate login on www.mahacet.org
