Admission requirements

Note: Admission to The University of Western Australia India campuses is based on a fair and holistic evaluation of every applicant. While the eligibility criteria represent the minimum academic requirements to apply, final admission decisions will be made based on a combination of factors, including but not limited to the applicant’s academic performance. No separate admission test is required. Meeting the eligibility criteria does not guarantee admission; it confirms that an application is eligible for consideration. The following outlines the minimum academic requirements for undergraduate and postgraduate programmes at The University of Western Australia India. Entry requirements published on this page are correct as of the day of publication and may change without notice.
